CHAIRMAN'S NOTES

Reunions

I AM certain that the Reunion Meetings of St. Dunstaners held in each district once a year are of the utmost importance. I believe that these occasions are very generally enjoyed by the men and their wives, and of course they are most valuable to the organization as a means of keeping in touch with current opinion and individual needs.

Over thirty of these meetings are held each year, and each requires preparation, organization and clerical work. Almost without exception they run smoothly and well, and much credit is due to our splendid staff of After-Care Visitors under the co-ordination of Mr. Ottaway.

I Go When I Can

My duties as Chairman make it impossible for me to attend all, but I go whenever I can. Last month, for example, Mrs. Fraser and I were present at the Reunions at Hull and Leeds, and Mrs. Fraser was able to go to Preston. It is not only a pleasure to meet my old St. Dunstan's friends in this way, but it is also of the greatest value to have the opportunity of hearing what they think about various aspects of St. Dunstan's work.

A good Reunion should offer an opportunity for a personal interview to all who want it, and this should be arranged so that one follows the other without delay, and yet no one is kept waiting unduly. While the interviews are proceeding there should be some music or entertainment, or games and competitions for the rest. A Reunion should be an occasion when useful business can be transacted, but should also be a jolly cheerful day out—a change from the ordinary routine business of life. On the whole I believe our Reunions are conducted with efficiency and in the right spirit and that they are enjoyed, but there is nothing that cannot be improved, and each Social Visitor may be able to make suggestions for improvement which may be capable of general adoption.

Our Splendid Social Visitors

From time to time I review all the various Departments of St. Dunstan's, not only to see that they are working properly, but so as constantly to improve them, and in connection with Reunions I am arranging shortly to have a Conference at Headquarters with all the Social Visitors and Mr. Ottaway, when full discussion and exchange of views can take place. If any of my friends who read these notes have ideas or suggestions about Reunions I shall be glad to hear from them.

When we made some changes in our organization two or three years ago, a few of the men suggested that we should give up or cut down the Reunions. I do not agree with this. Reunions must go on, and we will do everything we can to make them as useful and enjoyable as possible for all concerned.

Our Comrades' Widows

I was particularly glad at recent Reunions to meet some of our late comrades' widows. I am making a special point of reminding Social Visitors always to invite widows to Reunions, as I am sure all St. Dunstaners would wish to welcome them.

Looking Your Best

When we were returning from one or two Reunions lately, Mrs. Fraser told me she had noticed how much trouble had been taken by the men and their wives with their clothes, dress and personal appearance. I was so delighted to hear this, for care in these matters is a sure sign of the right kind of pride and independence. The old idea that a blind man must be rather a helpless and dejected being is fostered by carelessness in the matter of personal appearance, and nothing creates a better impression than attention to these matters. It is not so much a matter of having new and expensive things to wear, but of taking trouble to see that they are well turned out. St. Dunstaners and their wives set a splendid example in this, and I congratulate them.

Canadians' Reunion Dinner

Bill Dies—one-armed Canadian blinded soldier—will be remembered by a great many old St. Dunstaners. He writes me that our Canadian comrades are upholding the old spirit of St. Dunstan's and remaining cheerful and doing their best to carry on. They had a splendid Reunion in the Sir Arthur Pearson Club in Toronto—which is their headquarters. St. Dunstaners over here will thank Bill Dies for his cheery message, and send best wishes in return to him and all our Canadian friends.

IAN FRASER.

After-Care Reunions

Hull

THE Hull Reunion was held on the 23rd January, and was much enjoyed. Capt. Fraser presided, and gave a very interesting address, the vote of thanks being proposed by G. Lawty. We were all very pleased to welcome Mrs. Fraser also. After lunch Mr. Goulden and his "Variety" boys, gave us lively music and quick turns. Sister Pat and Miss Auriel Smith were responsible for the games and competitions that followed, and everyone was sorry when the time came to say goodbye.

H. K. L. PEASE.

Leeds

THE Reunion at Leeds on the 24th January, was a very successful affair. Captain Fraser came to preside, accompanied by Mrs. Fraser, and received a very warm welcome. G. H. Heeley proposed a vote of thanks to Capt.

Fraser which concluded with singing "For he's a jolly good fellow." Mr. Goulden of Hull, sent over three of his musicians who kept us very lively with their band. Mr. George Lister, of B.B.C. fame, also entertained us. Sister Pat ran competitions, and Mrs. Smyth sent a "Reunion" cake for weight guessing. Dancing and community singing were vigorously kept up and all too soon the afternoon came to a close when we wished Capt. Fraser goodbye, and broke up with "Auld Lang Syne" and three hearty cheers for St. Dunstan's.

H. K. L. PEASE.

Sheffield

THE Sheffield Reunion was held on the 25th January and was largely attended. After tea, we enjoyed an excellent speech from Mr. Ottaway; the vote of thanks being moved by C. Greaves and W. Burgin. We then went on to a full programme of dancing, games, competitions, songs and recitations. We were delighted to welcome Mrs. Irvine (Sister Pat). Members of the Sheffield V.A.D. were also present as helpers. Special prizes of a pheasant and a wonderful cake were presented by Miss Lowe for a guessing competition, and the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" brought a very happy afternoon to a close.

H. K. L. PEASE.

The Personal Touch

IT has always been St. Dunstan's aim to deal with the interests of every blinded soldier on a personal basis, and hundreds of letters leave St. Dunstan's for all parts of the world every week, carrying with them goodwill and maintaining that personal touch which is such a strong link between Headquarters and St. Dunstaners. The Chairman's post bag gives daily evidence of this. Here for example is an extract from a letter written by J. H. McMillan, late private in the 2nd Transvaal Scottish, a new St. Dunstan who has only joined our ranks in the past few months, in South Africa. McMillan's circumstances are such that he cannot come to England for training at St. Dunstan's—he is a veteran of sixty-nine years of age, but he is being looked after by St. Dunstan's Committee in South Africa, of which Mrs. Bates is the Secretary. Captain Fraser has of course never had the opportunity of meeting McMillan, but the personal touch is here just the same, and it is an encouragement to know how much it is appreciated. McMillan writes: "It is not easy for me to convey to you and to Mrs. Fraser my grateful thanks for your beautiful symbolic Christmas Card. What makes your kind action the more precious to me is that you sent me an individual letter with it. Without my present disability I should have found it hard to understand that such people existed in the world who would take all the time and trouble to send to each a personal remembrance at this season. I know what an enormous amount of work and thought this must entail. It is given to us 'dark' men to think a great deal and to know the value of humanity and practical sympathy."

Stock-Taking

This is always done at the Raglan Street Stores on the 31st March. It will aid us very much if all men sending in finished goods and ordering raw material will do so before the 24th March.

National Laying Test

UNDERNOTED are the results for the last four weeks in the St. Dunstan's Section of this test:—

Letters to the Editor

ST. DUNSTAN'S AND THE F.A.F.

DEAR SIR,

I write to thank you for your kindness in referring to the 42nd Annual Report of Pearson's Fresh Air Fund in the January issue of the REVIEW.

Owing to my retirement from St. Dunstan's I am not now in such direct personal contact with St. Dunstaners and staff as I was, and I hope you will be good enough to allow me through your columns to thank them for their kind contributions last year.

For many years I have received regular remittances from Miss Thellusson, the Commandant Matron at St. Dunstan's, Brighton, representing amounts subscribed by St. Dunstaners whilst staying there. I have also had regular contributions from the Brighton Appeals Office, from Headquarters, and from the Sales Department at Raglan Street.

I have always received these amounts at different times in the year and have placed them to the general fund. But I have now decided that it would be a nice thought to put all the St. Dunstan's collections together and do something for a party of children in the name of the men of St. Dunstan's. For example, if I were to receive £13, this would take a party of two hundred poor children, with adult attendants, away for a glorious day in the country, with plenty of good food, and we could call it the St. Dunstaners' Party. I wonder if my St. Dunstan's friends would like this?

In the hope that they would I shall put aside the various sums which may reach me in the next few months, and then add them together for this purpose. I wonder if you, Mr. Editor, will be good enough to receive contributions from any St. Dunstaner who may not be in touch with Headquarters or the Brighton Annexe in the next month or two? Later on I will let you know the date of the party, so that St. Dunstaners can have the children in mind when it takes place.

In conclusion, please let me add a word of goodwill to all St. Dunstaners. I am constantly thinking of them.—Yours faithfully,

E. KESSELL.

[NOTE.—I shall be pleased to receive and to forward to Mr. Kessell any contributions sent to me for the purpose mentioned.—EDITOR.]

BRITISH LEGION AND ST. DUNSTAN'S.

DEAR SIR,

It was a source of great pleasure to me to hear of the prompt action Captain Fraser had taken with regard to a resolution put forward by a member of the Devon County Meeting of the British Legion. No one could have done the war blinded men a greater service than did our late chief, Sir Arthur, when he conceived the idea of putting into operation the training of St. Dunstaners. No state pension could ever take the place of occupation. I earnestly hope, as I know all of my fellow St. Dunstaners do, that those responsible for the marketing of St. Dunstan's goods will ever find a ready market. I feel sure idleness would make many inroads on our health. Our work is a stimulant to us all, and may it long continue. Self-help will always bring support from our generous British public.

A. R. CLOVER.

[NOTE.—As mentioned in last month's REVIEW, a Devon conference of the British Legion rejected out of hand a resolution attacking St. Dunstan's. In a note our Chairman said, "I wonder where British blinded soldiers would have been if there had been no St. Dunstan's."—EDITOR.]

RESIGNATION OF MISS REYNOLDS.

DEAR SIR,

The intimation of the above in the last edition of the REVIEW must have aroused similar feelings of loss in other St. Dunstaners as myself, and I am of opinion that all who have been steered through the various pontes asinorum of that fell assassin M. Braille, would wish to make some practical expression of our high appreciation for Miss Reynolds.

I would like our Chairman to suggest the most suitable manner, in your next issue, in which we may manifest our regard for a very tactful and endearing personality.—Yours truly,

G. M. RISELEY.

[The Chairman wishes us to say that the suggestion in this letter has his cordial approval. If any readers wish to subscribe for a little memento to Miss Reynolds, the Editor will be glad to receive and apply the money to the purchase of a suitable gift. We feel sure Miss Reynolds would value not the amount of any subscription but the number of her friends who wish to be associated in such a memento. Accordingly we suggest a modest subscription of a shilling, or even less, so that all who wish to may join in. The names of the subscribers, but not the amounts, will be handed to Miss Reynolds when the gift is purchased.]

Young St. Dunstaners

BILLY Fishwick, son of F. P. Fishwick, of St. Helen's, is a member of the Merton Bank Rugby Schoolboy Team which won the Lancashire School Cup and Gold Medals, and the Daily Dispatch Shield and Gold Medals. He is 14 years of age, attends all the matches, and derives much pleasure from following the game.

JOAN Harding, daughter of our telephonist, W. H. Harding, has been awarded a scholarship which will take her to Highbury High School.

Triangles

ONLY one competitor sent in a correct solution of last month's competition, which was:

G A N D E R

T. Gregory, of Methwold, Norfolk, was the winner.

Here is this month's competition:—

b c
ba=Something on the level
bc=Something on the floor
ac=Something on the back

Two prizes of half a guinea each will again be awarded. Entries must be addressed to the Editor, "St. Dunstan's Review," Inner Circle, Regent's Park, London, N.W.1, and the envelopes marked "Competition." Entries will be received up to first post on Monday, 5th March. The prizes will be awarded to the two first correct solutions opened.

St. Dunstaners only are eligible for the competition and no correspondence on the matter will be entertained.

Gardening Hints

THIS is the time for sowing garden peas and beans, lettuce, spring onions, potatoes, and sweet pea flower seeds. Sow the sweet peas an inch deep in rows at four inches apart. When they are about five inches high, nip the centres out so that they will shoot away from the side and give more bloom. Aster and stock seed can be sown now in frames. Dampen the frame first, then sow the seed very thinly in the way I have mentioned before. Cover with fine soil. Cucumber seed too can be sown now in pots. Put the broad end of the seed in the soil, cover it with more soil, and dampen well. Keep on a hot bed, covering pots with paper. When they shoot through bring to the light and keep moist. For a good border for a front garden I strongly recommend nemesia. It is a half hardy annual about eight inches high, of different colours, and lasts from June to September. I sell a lot of these myself.

D. MAKIN.

An Offer

Last month a St. Dunstaner suggested that a nurseryman might be asked to answer questions on gardening. D. Makin has very kindly offered to answer any queries if readers would care to send them along.

A Sporting Tribute

WE have received a letter from Mr. W. Lord, of Newport, a member of the Monmouthshire Area, War Pensions Committee, in which he says: "I am forwarding a football programme issued by Newport County with reference to one of your members, viz. A. C. Evans, of Newport. I thought it would be of interest to your magazine as a tribute to the splendid work of St. Dunstan's."

Here is the extract from the programme of Newport County A.F.C. to which Mr. Lord refers:—

"TO-DAY'S BIOGRAPHY.

"BERT EVANS is one of those supporters of whom Newport County can well be proud. Very rarely does he miss attendance at a match—yet he cannot see the players, ball or crowd. He is keen and attentive to all that passes in the game—which he follows by his own hearing and from description of his friends. Bert Evans joined up when he was only a boy—as did numerous others—but when only 17 years of age was blinded in both eyes by a sniper's bullet in Gallipoli. He has been trained as a basket-worker by St. Dunstan's, and I do not know a more appreciative student of that institution.

"What an example as a follower of the County for some of us! We all join in wishing our sightless friend the best that can be wished him in the New Year."

St. Dunstaner to Broadcast

Dan McLoughlin is again to broadcast from Dublin-Athlone station on March 12th.

"In Memory"

CORPORAL ARTHUR BROWN
(1st Lincolnshire Regiment)

We very much regret to record the death of A. Brown, of Holbeach, on the 21st January. Brown was in the Army nine years before the War broke out, and served a considerable portion of that time in India. He was one of the first men in his own town to be called for service in 1914, and he was one of the first to return, injured.

In November, 1915, a bomb exploded in his hand, as a result of which he lost his eyesight and his right hand, the left hand being badly injured. He came to St. Dunstan's in 1916, and was trained as a poultry farmer. However, after a few years, owing to ill health, he had to give up this occupation.

In 1919 he started a tobacco and confectionery business, in the running of which he and his wife proved very successful. Brown's health, however, had been anything but good for the past few years; he was taken seriously ill towards the end of last year, and although everything possible was done for him, he passed away on the 21st January.

The funeral took place on the 25th January, and was attended by many relatives and friends, the latter including the President of the local Branch of the British Legion, and a representative of the Old Comrades' Association. There were many wreaths, including one from Captain Fraser and his comrades of St. Dunstan's.

We extend our very sincere sympathy to Mrs. Brown in her bereavement.

PRIVATE HARRY HUDSON
(Australian Imperial Forces)

It is with deep regret that we have heard of the recent death of our Colonial St. Dunstaner, Harry Hudson, of New South Wales. No details are yet available, as the sad news only reached us through a letter from Australia.

Hudson was wounded at the Dardanelles in May, 1915, and came to St. Dunstan's two months later. He was trained as a poultry farmer and basket maker and returned to New South Wales in March, 1916.

We extend our sincere sympathy to Hudson's widow.

Births

SHELTON.—To the wife of F. Shelton, of Welling, Kent, on January 21st, a son.

Deaths

We offer our sincere sympathy to the following:—

ALDRIDGE.—To A. Aldridge, of Dagenham, whose mother passed away on January 22nd.

BALLANTYNE.—To J. Ballantyne, of Enfield, who lost his wife on February 8th.

BULL.—To S. Bull, of Spilsby, and his wife, who lost their little son, John, on January 16th.

FEARN.—To the wife of E. Fearn, of East Kirkby, who lost her father on January 23rd.

HESKETH.—To J. V. Hesketh, of Greenford, whose father passed away on 30th January, in his eighty-third year.

HORNER.—To R. Horner, of Holmfirth, whose mother passed away on January 23rd, at the age of 73.

IRVINE.—To J. Irvine, of Maryhill, Glasgow, who has suffered a double bereavement by the loss of his mother on December 11th and of his father on January 5th.

JONES.—To the wife of Vere Jones, of Northwich, whose mother died on January 9th.

MUGGERIDGE.—To W. A. Mugeridge, of Great Bookham, whose father passed away on February 3rd.

PIKE.—To W. Pike, of Cork, who lost his son, Thomas, on December 18th.

PRATT.—To P. C. Pratt, of Meadowfield, Co. Durham, whose wife passed away on January 20th.

READ.—To the wife of H. B. Read, of Brighton, whose mother has recently passed away.

Dublin St. Dunstaners

ON Monday, January 15th, Messrs. R. Keating, Dunn, and Cathcart, of the Dublin Rotary, entertained Dublin St. Dunstaners at the Gaiety Theatre pantomime, and tea was provided. After the performance our men were introduced to the members of the company. The St. Dunstaners were D. McLoughlin, E. P. Horan, R. Bell, J. Goodison, and F. Dooley.

SPORTS CLUB NOTES

12 MILE SEALED HANDICAP WALK.

SATURDAY, MARCH 10TH

Will all entries for the 12 mile Outer Circle Walk on Saturday, March 10th, reach me by February 28th.

15 MILE ROAD WALK.

SATURDAY, APRIL 21ST.

The 15 mile Walk at Wembley will again, with the kind permission of the National Amalgamated Approved Society, take place from their Sports Club at North Wembley. Arrangements for this walk will appear in next month's REVIEW.

L. WOOLRYCH.

9 MILE OPEN HANDICAP WALK.

This race took place from Headquarters on January 27th under splendid conditions. Captain Ian Fraser acted as starter before a large assembly of old friends and a battery of cameras.

Space will not allow a detailed account of the walk, but the sporting press paid tribute to the excellence of the performances put up. There were some grand tussles and some reversals of previous form, and the results, given overleaf, make interesting food for thought.

After tea Miss Hamar Greenwood thanked all officials and escorts, and presented the prizes with congratulations to all the competitors. Archie Brown replied for the boys. A small Dance Band from the Royal Horse Guards, which had volunteered to come along, provided dance music and Dick Slaughter sang some delightful songs. Jock McFarlane, after competing in the race, gave a Scotch humorous turn, and Mr. and Mrs. Lamb then came into the limelight with a much appreciated double turn. Dancing, intermingled with these concert items, finished off a very pleasant evening which everyone keenly appreciated.

Mr. Joe Binks, on behalf of the News of the World, has once again extended an invitation for a party of men to follow the London to Brighton Relay Run (by car, of course) on Saturday, April 14th. Names please!
W. A. T.

Birmingham

ANNUAL WALK.

SATURDAY, APRIL 7TH.

THE Birmingham Annual Walk will be held again this year from the Farcroft Hotel, Handsworth, Birmingham (by kind invitation of Mr. Murphy). The distance has been reduced this year to 10 miles. Prizes will be awarded for A and B sections and in the handicap; there will also be the annual team race for the Challenge Cup. Medals will be awarded to the winning team.

Christmas Party

THE Annual Christmas Party was held as usual in the Large Hall, Queen's College, on Thursday, 18th January. It was decided this year to invite members to bring all their children under 14, and to have a Christmas Tree and presents after tea. This seems to have been a popular suggestion, as 41 children turned up. The Club also invited 23 disabled ex-Servicemen. They have been coming to our Christmas Party now for three or four years and are quite like old friends. Twenty-four St. Dunstan's members and their wives were present.

Councillor and Mrs. Macdonald were very welcome visitors. Councillor Macdonald, supported by Mr. Cooling, said a few words of welcome to everyone before the Christmas Tree. Mrs. Macdonald then presented each child with a parcel, the ladies with chocolate, and all the troops with a packet of cigarettes from the tree. Mr. W. Shakespeare, junr., was kept very busy helping to sort out all the children's presents which his father had got for the tree, and which had been tied up and labelled by Miss Shakespeare.

The room was then quickly cleared for competitions and games.

There was an enormous ring for the Parcel game, St. Dunstaners and their ex-Service guests competing together. After a great struggle it was won by Williams, of St. Dunstans.

After the competitions there was a little dancing, and coffee and refreshments were handed round before everyone left.

A. HODGSON.

Brighton

5 MILE WALK.

SATURDAY, MARCH 3RD.

Open to all members of the Brighton St. Dunstan's Sports Club living in the Southern Counties. There will be an A. and B. section and a sealed handicap. Will anyone wanting to enter please send his entry to Corp.-Major Tovell at Headquarters not later than February 26th. Will all those competing please be at the Annexe not later than 2 p.m.

The next meeting of the Club will be on Wednesday, March 7th, in the Netting Room at Brighton.

CLUB MEETINGS.

A meeting on January 16th opened with a speech of good wishes for the New Year from Matron who went on to tell those present that she had two pieces of good news, that Mr. Ottaway was with them that evening, and that she had asked Mr. Askew if Corpl.-Major Tovell could come and help them with their monthly sports meetings (applause). This being arranged a change of days would be necessary. Put to the meeting, the first Wednesday in every month was fixed, the next being February 7th. It was also decided to meet on Wednesday, March 7th, in addition to the Brighton Walk, which Matron told them was fixed for Saturday, March 3rd.

At the meeting on February 7th, (the tea for which had very kindly been given by Mr. and Mrs. Scott) Matron said how delighted she was, and she knew the "boys" were, to have Corp.-Major Tovell with them.

Matron also asked the members to vote on the question of allowing men who are in training, either in London or Brighton, to enter the walk on 3rd March. A vote in favour was recorded. Further details of the walk were then discussed.

Mr. Parking and Mr. Tree of the Sussex County Athletic Club attended the meeting
A. HODGSON.
